

Acknowledgements

Many thanks to the Academy of Finland for having supported this work.

I would also like to extend my gratitude to the following people for their faith and support of this project:

Pekka Korvenmaa and Philip Dean at the University of Art and Design Helsinki/UIAH; Jussi-Pekka Taavitsainen at the University of Turku; Anna Lyytikäinen-Järvi at Raisio City Hall, and Jari Näränen at the Harkko Museum in Raisio.

Derrick DeKerkchove and Derek Fewster, my advisors. Yrjö Engeström and Klaus Krippendorff, who evaluated the manuscript as well as offered valuable pointers for future work. Timo Honkela, Kari-Hans Kommonen, Maria Koskijoki, Kari Kuutti, and Sirkku Pihlman, who at different points read and offered critique about the document.

Anne Laaksonen and the rest of the staff at the library at UIAH who helped me to obtain many of the sources I have used in the work. Tania Rodríguez, who assisted me in the production of many of the graphics that illustrate the manuscript. The staff at the Media Lab. Lisa Muzinski who helped me to proof and polish the final draft. Sami Raninen, Ann-Christin Antell, Mervi Suhonen and all the other archaeology students who collaborated in the project.

The Kommonen family, Kari-Hans, Ritva, Fjalar, Matías, and Anna María, without whose love, patience, and understanding, this work would not have been possible. Celeste Díaz Estrella, my sister, and my mother Zelma Jiménez Mandés. Rafael Díaz Requena, my father.

Dolores Mandés Hernández and Cecilia Alfaro, two women who are a continuing source of inspiration and knowledge.
